

NOW SHOWING

SHOWERING INFERNO

Just when you thought it was safe to return to the shower...

Legionella bacteria like to stick together; they colonise and contaminate hot water systems, spa baths and showers, then spread through the air from the water source. Protect yourself and patients! Run showers hot for at least two minutes every day – especially before use.

Prevent the spread of Legionnaires' Disease – FLUSH YOUR SHOWER

For more information on infection prevention and control in practice

visit www.healthcareA2Z.org